Liturgy Reflection

He had to have heard him. Even on the cross, his last breath just hours away, Jesus heard the criminal next to him when he addressed him, so he must have heard him when he'd said to the other criminal, "We have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes." He makes no pretense of innocence. He makes no excuse for his sentence, so his crime must have been particularly heinous. But now, hours away from death himself, he addresses Jesus with one thing, one thing only: "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." Jesus, who throughout his Passion had acted with boundless compassion ("com-passion" literally meaning "to suffer with"), praying that Peter's faith not fail, praying that his disciples not suffer, healing the high priest's servant's ear, comforting the women who accompanied him, and asking forgiveness of those who condemned him, now assures this criminal, this criminal whom he has heard admit that he was condemned justly and sentenced appropriately, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." What consolation it must give us to know the extent of Jesus' compassion.

Today's Readings

First Reading - Isaiah 50:4-7

Psalms - Psalm 22

Second Reading - Philippians 2:6-11

Gospel - Luke 22:14 - 23:56

Next Sunday's Readings

First Reading - Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Psalms - Psalm 118

Second Reading - Colossians 3:1-4

Gospel - John 20:1-9

The Face of Jesus

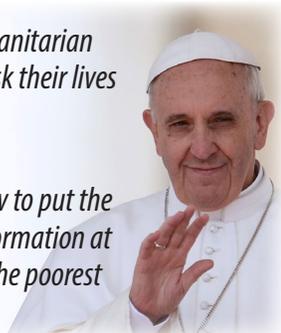

In all the readings for this Sunday we can look at the face of Jesus. There are two Gospel passages, both from the Gospel of Luke. The first tells of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem on the back of a donkey. Crowds greeted him with shouts of "Hosanna!" The second tells of Jesus' departure from Jerusalem, carrying the cross on his back. The same crowds derided him and shouted for his crucifixion. We first see a face shining with glory, but in a few short days a face dark with blood and sorrow. Set between these two contrasting Gospel passages are equally contrasting readings from the Hebrew and Christian scriptures. Isaiah describes a suffering servant who willingly submits to beating and humiliation, not even turning away his face. He knows he belongs to God and will not be put to shame. Paul writes to the Philippians of Christ Jesus, the true Suffering Servant, who willingly emptied himself to become human. But this man, with a very human face, has now been exalted by God above all others.

HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

Let us pray for doctors and their humanitarian collaborators in war-torn areas, who risk their lives to save the lives of others.

Proposal for the Month

Personally, or as a group, reflect on how to put the talents of academic and professional formation at the service of our siblings, especially the poorest and those who suffer.

A NOTE FROM THE PARISH ADMINISTRATOR

Good crossword clue: "What is the shortest book in the old testament?" Twenty-one verses and "the shortest and sternest prophecy" in the old testament". (Obadiah)

One of my "side jobs" with the city council is to serve on a couple utility boards, which begs the question: Do you know where your water comes from? If you said "FRUS", which means "Fairpoint Regional Utility System", you'd be correct – that is – if you're in Gulf Breeze, Tiger Point, Midway or Navarre. Beach residents get their water pretty much from ECUA. The FRUS is made up of the ownership of the City of Gulf Breeze (including SSRUS), Midway Water Supply and Holley Navarre Water Services. Each entity provides representatives to the board of directors. The monthly meetings rotate through the participating owners. So – where does the water come from? The FRUS water system has six (6) groundwater wells located in the East Milton Area. A seventh well is being constructed and should open this year. The pumping capacity is from 6 – 8 million gallons per day and the water comes over, under and through the bay onto the peninsula in water mains varying in size from 12" to 24". On occasion, if a well goes down, we may use ECUA water as backup. While writing this I had a customer call and ask about fluoride – do any of the local water utilities still put fluoride in the water? Have to admit I didn't know for use but was told by one our trusty city staff persons that none of the local utilities add fluoride to the water. That's good news for your dentist. Sewer comes next.

I think we can now consider the renovation of the parish hall complete. Last week the finishing touches were applied to the audio/visual system and, except for a bit of follow-up training, we should be finished. Also – the neighborhood library is getting attention in its new location near the butterfly garden, and the nature trail is getting very popular, especially with the stations.

By now you should be seeing a little more movement on Joachim as the new light poles are being installed. We don't have a schedule yet on re-paving Joachim and installing crosswalks to The Arbors, but it's in the works.

Speaking of acronyms – "NEP" – which means "Neighborhood Enhancement Plan" is a program the city council and city staff are working on to "protect and enhance the neighborhoods' character while ensuring proper management of environmentally sensitive lands." The first neighborhood to experiment with this program is the Soundview Trail, Lakeshore Drive and Tall Pine Trail area in Gulf Breeze that is trying to preserve its character while dealing with traffic, seasonal "cut-throughs" to the beach, speeders and dangerous driving practices. They are also dealing with drainage and environmental challenges. This group is working with the city in charting its own course through neighborhood meetings and planning sessions and, in some cases, a willingness to spend their own money to get it done more quickly. There will be more on this and we expect other neighborhoods to follow suit. Stay tuned – it's a good thing.

Words of the Day: Optics and Metrics – these buzzwords came into focus about the time I retired from the business world. For a while it was "what you see is what you get" and "it is what it is", and those have given way to "it's the optics that makes a difference" and "what are the metrics?", meaning if you can't measure it you don't know how you're doing.

Bishop Wack cordially invites all the faithful of the Diocese to attend the Chrism Mass on Tuesday, April 16 at 10:00am at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart. In this annual liturgy rich in symbolism, the Bishop gathers with the priests serving in our diocese to renew their fellowship and their commitment to priestly ministry. It is at this Mass each year that the Bishop blesses the oil of the sick and the oil of catechumens and consecrates the holy chrism, all of which will enrich the sacramental life of the diocese in the coming year.
