Liturgy Reflection

Jesus challenges us again this week. It is not enough for his disciples to be blessed when they are persecuted; now he tells them they must turn the other cheek. They must give the clothes off their back - not to the poor and needy, but to the very person who has already stolen their cloak. This kind of attitude is radical, preposterous. It goes beyond even the magnanimity David showed in sparing Saul's life even though Saul was ready to kill him. In David's age, in Jesus' time, in our day, society tells us it is appropriate to retaliate against those who hurt you. It is difficult to resist this urge, let alone to turn around and be generous - to give your other cheek, your possessions, your forgiveness, your love - to those who hate you. But this is what we are called to do. Be merciful, as God is merciful. Jesus isn't just teaching here. He is revealing himself and his mission. His mission is to love, in fact, to save, those who steal, who curse, who injure, who hate. Sinners. Us. He is revealing our mission as well. We are called, after all, to "bear the image of the heavenly one". We are called to be Christ.

Today's Readings

Gospel - Luke 6:27-38

Next Sunday's Readings

First Reading - Sirach 27:4-7

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

Gospel - Luke 6:39-45

HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

For a generous welcome of the victims of human trafficking, of enforced prostitution, and of violence.

Proposal for the Month

Organize, in your parish community, or other groups, a moment of prayer for the victims of human trafficking, in which all share information about this topic.

Mercy & Humanity

Jesus commands us to show mercy to those who hurt us. "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." We are called to be merciful not just because it is the right thing to do, but also because God is merciful. But there is another implication. Since we are created in the image of God, and God is merciful, we are created to be merciful. This is not some additional feature that Jesus is calling forth from his disciples. This is part of our constitution, our humanity. It is no accident that humane is often used as a synonym for merciful. To be human is to be merciful. How am I showing my mercy, my humanity to others? Am I witnessing to the God-given Spirit within me?

A NOTE FROM THE PARISH ADMINISTRATOR

Just a quick note on CSA - A couple weeks into the campaign we seem to be doing fairly well. St. Ann now has 131 families who have pledged while Our Lady has 27. Total pledging in the diocese is 3,018 – slightly down from last year. Remember – it's not how much, it's how many.

At its Executive Council meeting on February 13, 2019, the City Council unanimously approved a motion recommending the appointment of JB Schluter to fill the remaining two years of a four year term for Seat "A". The council is now back to full force (5 members). JB has previously served on the council for 8 years and is expected to "hit the ground running". He's also the owner/operator of Innerlight Surf Shops. The previous mayor stepped down on January 18 and 32 days later after considering 93 candidates, then 16, then 5 the council is intact, with Cherry Fitch as mayor, yours truly as mayor pro tem, and Randy Hebert (Our Lady parishioner), Todd Torgersen and JB Schluter councilmen.

Speaking of the council: By now the council should have passed the golf cart ordinance affecting golf cart usage within the city. It's far from perfect but it's about the best we can expect as we attempt to retrofit some of the city streets to meet present-day requirements. This will have to suffice until we get the Fairpoint to Shoreline Loop Project completed in a couple years. Even then you'll have a hard time finding a way to legally cross 98. Since there are likely more non-golf cart owners than golf cart owners reading this, I won't bore you with the details, but you should be able to pick up a copy of the ordinance at city hall or go on-line. As a last resort, I'll have a copy. Above all things – don't ride your golf cart on the sidewalk in Gulf Breeze. (I don't think Tiger Point has many sidewalks, but you will see some signage as to where you can drive your cart there also.) BTW – I have to double-check my spelling any time I write "ordinance" since it sounds like "ordnance". Anybody know the difference?

Still speaking of the council: At the February 13 executive session we got the full-court press from area veterans who are pushing for the naming of the new bridge for Gen. Chappie James (I'm sure you've heard of this initiative) who wanted this item to appear on the agenda for immediate passage – it didn't happen and probably won't happen until sometime in March. There are two groups here – the one that wants the replacement bridge to honor Gen. James and then the group who says the bridge is already named for Senator Beall. It gets interesting but we all know that, no matter what they name it, it will still be the 3 mile bridge. Stay tuned.

You'll note some action on Daniel Street in front of the church as the crew is installing underground cables as part of the new streetscape design. Also, contributing our part, we have a bid to complete the rail fencing along Joachim up to Daniel.

Dictionary.com's word of the day: "Snowbird" – we'll take the informal noun – "A person who vacations in or moves to a warmer climate during cold weather". Of course – we know the definition and are always happy to welcome our snowbirds. We'll even put you to work if you'd like. If you look at page 9 of this bulletin you'll see all the ministries listed. You're welcome to join as many as you'd like, especially those "in season". This goes for our regular readers as well. If you're willing to work, we're willing to let you.

Aphorism: Business conventions are important because they demonstrate how many people a company can operate without.

HEALTH TIPS BY NICOLLE

So let's talk about blood pressure ... first, what does it mean?

Blood pressure is read in two numbers - systolic (the top or first number) and diastolic (the bottom or second number).

Systolic blood pressure indicates how much pressure your blood is exerting against your artery walls when the heart beats.

Diastolic blood pressure indicates how much pressure your blood is exerting against your artery walls while the heart is resting between beats. Which number is more important? Typically, more attention is given to systolic blood pressure (the first number) as a major risk factor for cardiovascular disease for people over 50. In most people, systolic blood pressure rises steadily with age due to the increasing stiffness of large arteries, long-term buildup of plaque and an increased incidence of cardiac and vascular disease. However, either an elevated systolic or an elevated diastolic blood pressure reading may be used to make a diagnosis of high blood pressure. According to recent studies, the risk of death from ischemic heart disease and stroke doubles with every 20 mm Hg systolic or 10 mm Hg diastolic increase among people from age 40 to 89.

MISSION 850 We are excited to announce Summer 2019 Youth Mission Camp!

At camp, teens will be serving those impacted by Hurricane Michael. The week includes daily Mass, reconciliation, and the invitation to ongoing missionary discipleship. Registration is only $140/ person and includes housing and supplies for your mission work.

Where will we be serving? We will be serving most likely in Panama City, Marianna, Blountstown, or surrounding areas.

What will we be doing? The needs are diverse and changing. Our group may be using a chainsaw to remove trees, picking up sticks and debris from an elderly person's yard, helping carry out rain soaked rugs or furniture, rebuilding, or delivering donations. Local parishes and Catholic Charities provide the mission sites for the group. However, above all else, our mission is to love those we are serving.

You are encouraged to pray with anyone and listen to their stories. Ask how they are doing and how they are feeling . . . We must never underestimate the need for kindness, listening ears, or a smile. If your high school teen is interested in joining our mission group, please contact Jody Daily at jody@stanngulfbreeze.org. Deadline to register is March 4th.
