Liturgy Reflection

For the last three weeks we have heard Jesus explain that he is the bread of Life. Hearing "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood" and "For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink" was challenging, to say the least. Now it is decision time. Can all his disciples accept this? No. Not just one, not just a few, but "many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him". This is shocking. These are his disciples. These are people who have accepted and followed him through his teachings, healings, and miracles. This was not the response Joshua received when he gathered all the tribes of Israel and forced the people to take a stand. They all joined Joshua and his household in pledging to continue to serve the Lord. But such is not the case with Jesus. So then he addresses just the Twelve: "Do you also want to leave?". Peter, speaking on behalf of all the apostles, answers Where can we go? We do believe. You are the One. The Twelve have committed.

Today's Readings

First Reading - Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Psalm - Psalm 34

Second Reading - Ephesians 5:21-32

Gospel - John 6:60-69

Keeping our Commitments

In the musical "Fiddler on the Roof", the husband, Tevye, whose marriage was arranged years and years before, wants to know if his wife really loves him. Was their marriage just an arrangement, a deal? Did his wife, after all these years, ever love him? Does she still? We need to know if our loving commitments stick. We need to be reminded and reaffirmed. In the first reading, Joshua, Moses' successor, needed to know if the people would remain faithful to their covenant with the Lord. Joshua was going to lead them to a new life - a settled life. Would they be faithful? Jesus, who identified himself as the very life of his disciples' life, needed to know: Will you also go away or will you stay? We do not often see Jesus this vulnerable. Peter and the apostles chose to stay. What will we do?

Next Sunday's Readings

First Reading - Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Psalm - Psalm 15

Second Reading - James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

Gospel - Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

The Treasure of Families

That any far-reaching decisions of economists and politicians may protect the family as one of the treasures of humanity.

Challenge for the Month:

In your own family, take care of relationships in a constructive way, creating bridges, healing wounds, taking care of those who are in greater difficulties or sick.

A NOTE FROM THE PARISH ADMINISTRATOR

Parish Hall renovations are about to be in full swing so we want you to know that we're trying to keep things moving during this time. At various times the hall will be very limited in the support we can provide while we negotiate our way around adding the new entry canopy to the front and painting, installing acoustical tile, replacing the carpet, resurfacing the terrazzo floor and all the things that go with it. We have committed to hosting breakfast for the high school football team every Friday from August 24 through at least November 2nd – maybe longer as the team gets into postseason play.

I've had parishioners tell me they only read my column (flattering but not productive) and pay no attention to what else is in the bulletin. Conversely, I've been told by some that they never read my column. That's counter-productive as well since even a blind pig finds an acorn every now and then. Thanks to our Spirit editor, Robin, the bulletin is chock-full of informative, uplifting news. Take the time to read the bulletin cover to cover and you'll be hooked. Every ministry or department of the parish (St. Ann, Our Lady and the Discovery School) is featured. Between Liturgy Reflections to Mass Scheduling you'll see all the news from what the Knights are serving for Wednesday night dinner to Health Tips by Melissa to Our Lady news. More seriously, buried on page 6, is the information for assistance for victims of sexual abuse. Just reading the list of ministries and contact information will show you all the opportunities to serve. Last – don't forget our advertisers. Their ad purchases allow us to not only get the bulletin at no cost, we actually make money on it. When looking for a handy man, a new car, rotator cuff surgery or getting your teeth cleaned – check the bulletin first.

Today, check the numbers below this column. Those reflect the state of the offertory for the current fiscal year (July 1 to June 30, 2019). The numbers show what we're budgeted to receive vs what we actually took in. The first clue when looking at numbers is whether there are brackets or parentheses around them, or red ink. In this case the brackets are there for both churches. That means we need to dig deeper or convert to on-line giving. Remember, with on-line giving you don't have to bother with the envelopes (which also cost us a pretty penny) and your tithe gets here even when you don't make it to Mass. (You only have to read this little reminder once a month. Next week we'll go back to featuring different personalities within the parish.)

Last week, coincidentally with the celebration of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Bishop Bill presided over the dedication of the "school building" at Our Lady. The construction guys worked hard at getting the new building ready for viewing. Lynn oversaw all the preparations, the choir was in fine form and Super Chef Lee Ann and the hospitality crew put out a great spread. I think you could call it a success. Fundraising for all the fixtures and furnishings continues with a varied menu of needed materials. So far "buying a brick" seems to be the trend. You can pick up a form at the church or give Lynn a call and send in your check for $125 per brick. Of course, there are always higher levels of giving. You can call me about those.

Words of the Day from Wordsmith: "Oldspeak" – Normal English usage, as opposed to propagandist, euphemistic or obfuscatory language and "Blinkered" – narrow-minded and subjective, unwilling to understand another viewpoint. I'll let you put it in sentences.

Aphorism: "If you don't have a sense of humor you probably don't have any sense at all."

Here is your chance to join a club where there are NO meetings and no fund-raising events. All that is needed are your prayers for our seminarians and $1 a month to support their education. An annual check of $12 will get you a membership in the Burse Club. An annual donation of $15 or $25 would greatly support those whom the Lord is calling to the priesthood. There are brochures in the Narthex. Checks should be made out to DCCW Burse Club. PLEASE JOIN!

Looking for a way to support a seminarian by "spiritually adopting" him? Our parish has had the privilege of hosting three of the current seminarians in our diocese.

Adopting a seminarian could mean:

Writing him letters, sending cards for special occasions, like birthdays or Christmas, sending monetary donations for surplus expenses, such as gas money or dinner out with classmates, and most importantly praying for him. You can send him a "Spiritual Bouquet" with prayer promises, mass intentions, and rosaries being said. Spiritual bouquets and financial gifts may be sent directly to your "adopted seminarian".

HEALTH TIPS BY MELISSA

Inflammation, which appears to be an underlying cause of age-related health conditions including Alzheimer's disease, heart conditions and certain cancers, can be tamed through diet and lifestyle - eating an anti-inflammatory diet is a good start.

The following four herbs and medications have powerful anti-inflammatory effects and may be helpful in minimizing this detrimental inflammation: 1. Ginger - dried, powdered ginger is a potent anti-inflammatory agent, and capsules are readily available in health food stores. 2. Turmeric - the principal ingredient in mild yellow prepared mustard and in some curries, turmeric has excellent anti-inflammatory properties. This bright spice may also have a specific preventive effect against Alzheimer's disease and may reduce the risk of cancer. 3. Aspirin - this time-honored medication offers a great many health benefits, including down-regulation of inflammation, decreased risk of heart attack, blood-thinning effects and reduced risk of some cancers. 4. Omega-3 fatty acids - the omega-3 fats, particularly from fatty fish like wild-caught salmon, have an anti-inflammatory effect.
